

Virginia Sport Horses

Transport Contract

It is hereby agreed, between the parties (_____ (owner) and Virginia Sport Horses) that the following horse will be picked up at:

_____, CANADA

Horses Name: _____ Age: _____

Said horse will be delivered to Virginia/California/Missouri/Florida/New England.

Said horse is assumed to be in good health at the time of departure. Any health concerns will be reported to the owner at the time of loading, and along the route. All Coggins, health papers and other necessary documentation will accompany horse for the duration of the haul.

Both parties agree upon the following: Buyer agrees that from the time of loading, all expenses incurred, including but not limited to; board (if applicable or necessary), feeding (except for allotted hay), veterinary care, farrier, etc. is due responsibility of the owner. Virginia Sport Horses is not responsible for any costs at exportation.

I anticipate and strive for safe horse transport, however, due to the nature of horses and the hazards of road travel, temperaments, stress, or air impurities, etc., Virginia Sport Horses LLC, and Liz Booth, will not be held responsible for accidents or health.

An individual insurance policy for each horse is highly recommended to cover liability, medical and mortality. Purchase of horse insurance is the sole responsibility of the owner.

Owner releases Liz Booth and Virginia Sport Horses LLC from any and all liabilities that involve said horse, or any other horse or incident.

Total shipping fee of $ _____ must be paid in advance of departure date from Virginia.
